MEASAT RECOGNIZED IN TELECOM ASIA AWARDS

Kuala Lumpur, 16 April 2008 – MEASAT Satellite Systems Sdn. Bhd. ("MEASAT") announced today it has been awarded third place in the "Best Satellite Carriers" Category of the 11th Annual Telecom Asia Awards.

The Telecom Asia "Best Satellite Carrier" award is determined by a panel of independent judges and is based on criteria such as operational and financial performance, market leadership, ability to leverage new technology and corporate governance. Of the 23 satellite operators supporting the Asia region, eight satellite operators had been short-listed and invited to participate in this years Awards.

The award is the first time MEASAT has received recognition from a regional organization for its leadership and performance in the regional satellite industry. London, UK based Inmarsat was the winner of the category, with Hong Kong based Asiasat being awarded second place.

About MEASAT

MEASAT is a premium supplier of satellite communication services to Asia's leading broadcasters, DTH platforms and telecom operators. With the recent commissioning of AFRICASAT-1, the MEASAT fleet is able to provide satellite capacity over 145 countries representing 80% of the world's population across Asia Pacific, Middle East, Africa, Europe and Australia. The fleet will be further enhanced in 2008 with the launch of MEASAT-3a, providing additional capacity and in-orbit redundancy at the Company's key 91.5E orbital video slot.

Leveraging facilities at the MEASAT Teleport and Broadcast Centre, and working with a select group of world-class partners, MEASAT also provides a complete range of broadcast and telecommunications services including high definition and standard definition video payout, video turnaround, collocation, uplinking and IP termination services.
